

champion, who had not been beaten in ten years before he met Smith in a 14-round bout at San Francisco in 1899.

Smith made a fortune in the ring and gave away a lot of his money. He has little of his fortune left, but enough to live comfortably.

In his workouts in a gym he has shown that while he is not as fast on his feet as he used to be, he is still a marvelous boxer. He carries a wicked punch and can whip any of the Portland fighters he is training with.

The European war has caused a boost in the cost of bowling. Mineralite, used in making balls, comes from Europe and is hard to get. Mottled balls that have sold for $13.50 are now selling for $15. Brown balls cost $14 and black ones $12. The increase, caused by the war, is $1.50 in each case.

"Mysterious" Billy Smith, Welterweight Champion Twenty Years Ago.

My young daughter, age 18, said to her suffragette aunt, age 40, last night: "So many women who want the vote cannot get a voter."—L. J.